

I Am A Leaf

I am a leaf
You are the wind
Softly you blow
And I fall down
I am the sun
And you season
And I die each night
And I will go low

I am the sand
You are the tide
You lay me down
And cast me wide
I am the bed
Round which you flow
And as I lay there
For you, I go

I am a tree
Although I am
My love's too strong
I can't break it down
I see the sky
With your smile
And I don't forget
Autumns know why
