

Say Goodbye

(Casta diva)
(Toi qui t'en vas)
(Tierra viva)

Go, go just say goodbye
I won't speak, I won't cry
For there is nothing to say
Go, go I won't ask why
Love is gone but life goes on
Say goodbye walk away now

I'll remember every ember
Of the flame that burns so brightly
All the music, all the laughter
All the love I gave you
I will treasure all the pleasure
Of the arms that held me tightly
And relive each golden moment
Of the days when love was new

Go, go just say goodbye
I won't speak, I won't cry
For there is nothing to say
Go, go I won't ask why
Love is gone but life goes on
Say goodbye, walk away now

I'll recapture all the rapture
Of the nights you lay beside me
Never lonely, living only
For the sight of you once more
Now you leaving and I'm grieving
For the love that you denied me
Now it's ending, no pretending
Turn away and close the door

Say goodbye and go
